

TILLAMOOK COUNTY MULTI-JURISDICTIONAL NATURAL HAZARDS MITIGATION PLAN 2022 UPDATE OPEN HOUSES

Are you concerned about natural hazards like flooding, wildfire or landslides? Tillamook County and the City of Nehalem are working to develop mitigation strategies to reduce risk from the most critical natural hazards we face. You can share your thoughts and learn more at a public open house.

Three open houses are being held to provide information about the Plan and gather your input. Attend the one most convenient for you!
